Get swept away by the sexy sheikh in this sizzling reissue from reader—favourite author Lynne Graham! Captive in the sheikh's harem! Tilda was living to regret that once she'd had a short-lived romance with Rashad, the Crown Prince of Bakhar. Now, not only had he gained possession of her impoverished family's home, Rashad was also blackmailing her for the huge debt they owed him—and insisting she pay the price...ashis concubine! Tilda was appalled—but in no position to refuse. Soon she was the arrogant sheikh's captive, ready to be ravished in his faraway desert kingdom. But Rashad slipped up by publicly naming Tilda as his woman...and under the law of Bakhar this meant she and he were bound together forever...as husband and wife! Book 1 in Lynne Graham's The Rich, the Ruthless and the Really Handsome trilogy. The Sultan's Harem Bride Sultan Asim of Jazeer has hundreds of women at his beck and call. So why does he want the only one who threatens to reveal his family's shameful secrets? Journalist Jacqui Fletcher jumped at the chance to write a history of the harem — not to become a sultan's plaything! But it's hard to remember her assignment when the sultan's sensuous caresses spark a fire she's never experienced before. Asim is looking for a pliable princess for a marriage of duty. Brave, beautiful Jacqui couldn't be more wrong for him. So why does holding her feel so right? The Desert King's Secret Heir Surrounded by society's glitterati, Arden Wills finds herself staring up into the eyes of her first and only love. But Sheikh Idris Baddour has a surprise title and heavy responsibilities...so she clings to her precious secret even tighter. Time has done nothing to dampen the intense ardour between them. And when their kiss is blasted across the world's front pages Arden's truth comes to light — the sheikh has a secret son! To avoid further scandal, Idris must legitimise his heir and make English Rose Arden his dutiful desert queen! The Desert King's Captive Bride Princess Ghizlan of Jeirut has returned home to find that warrior Sheikh Huseyn al Rasheed has seized her late father's kingdom. With her sister held hostage, Ghizlan has no choice. Her barbarian captor is determined to tame her, rule her — and make her his own! Forcing Ghizlan's hand in marriage will not be enough to conquer her body and soul: Huseyn's iron-will is challenged at every step by her magnificent beauty and fierce pride. It won't be long before they both fall prey to the firestorm between them... The Sheikh's Innocent Bride Desert prince Shahir bin Harith al Assad has three simple rules: never sleep with a virgin, never get involved with an employee and never get married... But rules are made to be broken! Kirsten Ross is innocent and penniless, and Shahir can't resist her. Soon she's pregnant with the sheikh's baby. Prince Shahir's honor dictates only one thing: Kirsten must become his bride! The Desert Sheikh's Captive Wife Tilda Crawford was regretting her short-lived romance with Rashad, the crown prince of Bakhar. Now, with her impoverished family indebted to him, Rashad was blackmailing Tilda by insisting she pay up...as his concubine! Soon Tilda was the arrogant sheikh's captive in his faraway desert kingdom. Then Rashad publicly acknowledged her as his woman... and under the law of Bakhar they were now bound together forever...as husband and wife! The Sheikh's Prize When Sheikh Zahir Ra'if Quarishi took a Western woman as his wife, it caused outrage among his people. And marrying Sapphire Marshall turned out to be the biggest mistake of Zahir's life. Sapphire fled the kingdom before sharing the marriage bed, leaving Zahir to face the shame alone – and his bank account five million dollars lighter. Now his ex-wife has been spotted in his desert and before she can run again, Zahir plans to banish her from his mind once and for all, beginning with reclaiming his wedding night! Rutila is an ordinary girl who works at a sundries shop, but she has a very rare blood type. One day, she went to donate her blood and met the desert prince. As soon as Prince Kasim saw Rutila, he called her the fated bride and tried to take her back to his country. At first, Rutila was confused, but she ultimately decided to go with him because she was moved by his devotion to his brother. However, Kasim suddenly made an unexpected request...! The desert prince will finally make her his bride in this dramatic reunion romance by debut author Lela May Wight! He asked for a night Now he requires her hand! Newly orphaned Charlotte Hegarty is ready to start living her life. She's determined a reckless encounter with her first love, Prince Akeem, will free her from the past. Maybe then she'll be able to forget him... Akeem wants to show Charlotte what she gave up when she turned her back on him. So he sweeps her away to his desert kingdom, intent on seduction. Yet when their secret tryst threatens to become a scandal, duty-bound Akeem makes an outrageous demand: Charlotte will be his queen! From Harlequin Presents: Escape to exotic locations where passion knows no bounds. After the death of her parents, Sorrel, the daughter of English ambassadors, was raised by Malik, aide to the sheikh. Although Sorrel is English, she feels that Kharastan, the country where she lives in the palace of the sheikh, is her true home. However, there is only one reason for her to want to go back to England: ever since childhood, she's been in love with Malik. But because he became sheikh, she feels like the time has come to put an end to her unrequited love. But Malik, who misunderstands her intentions, makes her an offer she can't refuse! "If you wish to know men, I will be your tutor..." Best Man's Conquest by Michelle Celmer He may have been best man at the wedding, but oil tycoon Dillon Marshall had parted on less-than-friendly terms with one guest, his ex-wife, Ivy Madison. Ivy was still a temptation to the billionaire. So he devised a plan to rid his system of her once and for all. He'd seduce her, then walk away... The Desert Bride of Al Zayed by Tessa Radley Sheikh Tariq bin Rashid, the desert prince of Zayed, had courted Jayne, captivated her, but he'd never truly trusted her. Now, after five years, she was back to demand a divorce. And Tariq was willing to comply. If Jayne would pretend to be his happily wedded bride for a few weeks longer... With this ring... When naive Polly Dixon lands in the desert kingdom of Dharia clutching an ornate ring – the only link to her hidden past – she never expected to be arrested and deposited at the feet of the country's formidable ruler! Prince Jasim bin Hamid al Rais was concerned that his womanizing elder brother was bewitched by his child's nanny—the throne of Quaram could be threatened by scandal! Though Elinor Tempest appeared to be a fragile beauty, Jasim wasn't fooled; he'd deal with this strumpet himself.... Only after he'd ruthlessly seduced her did Jasim discover Elinor really had been a virgin—and she'd fallen pregnant! A royal baby couldn't be born out of wedlock so, faster than the desert wind, Elinor became Jasim's unwanted bride.... Three gorgeous cousins: masculine, super-wealthy and irresistible! The Kyriakos Virgin Bride Greek billionaire Zac Kyriakos only married sheltered heiress Pandora Armstrong because her youth, beauty and naïveté met all his needs. Zacs whirlwind courtship swept Pandora off her feet but it wasn't until after their amazing wedding night that she discovered why Zac had wanted her so desperately! The Apollonides Mistress Scandal How dare the woman he'd thrown out of his bed show her face again? Her memory gone, Gemma Allen was seeking answers to her past. But Greek tycoon Angelo Apollonides, in his quest to avenge Gemma's betrayal, uncovered more than just a startling new passion. The woman in his arms wasn't his former mistress. She was her twin! The Desert Bride of Al Zayed After five years Jayne was going to face Sheikh Tariq bin Rashid, the desert prince of Zayed and her passionate husband. He'd courted her, captivated her, but he'd never truly trusted her, so she was back to demand a divorce. And Tariq was willing, if Jayne would pretend to be his happily wedded bride for a few weeks longer... The future of Judar rests with Farah Beaumont, a foreigner who wants nothing to do with her heritage. And to secure his country's peace, prince Shehab Aal Masood must make her his bride—by any means necessary. Hiding his identity and sweeping Farah off her feet is a start. But the joyful, seemingly innocent Farah is nothing like he expects. And Shehab's calculated seduction soon becomes an affair too powerful to control.... With this ring... When naive Polly Dixon lands in the desert kingdom of Dharia clutching an ornate ring—the only link to her hidden past—she never expected to be arrested and deposited at the feet of the country's formidable ruler! I thee blackmail! King Rashad is suspicious of desirable Polly, but her possession of the ring has caught the imagination of his country. They believe that Polly is the bride he's been waiting for, so Rashad begins a fiery sensual onslaught to melt away Polly's resolve and have her begging to walk down the aisle! Sheikh Khalid Bin Shareef has vowed never to get entangled with virgins. But innocent Maggie is too hard to resist—and he takes her... The next morning she disappears. But Maggie is unfinished business, and he has her sent to his kingdom. There they discover the consequence of their night of passion. Marriage is the only answer—but it must be one with no emotions, no expectations of love. Maggie will take her rightful place by the sheikh's side...and in his bed! After marrying the man she loved, Tariq, Jayne discovered he was actually the Sheikh of Zayed. As such, their married life became complicated and lonely for Jayne. She soon faced accusations that led her to leave Zayed. Five years have gone by and Jayne is able to finally settle matters with her husband...through divorce. But before it's finalized, Tariq asks Jayne to pretend to have reconciled with him in order to give his deeply ill father peace of mind. While acting as a reunited couple, can Jayne truly go through with the divorce? Will she risk being hurt again by the man she loves...a man who couldn't trust her five years ago? THE ROYAL WIFE After five years Jayne could finally release herself from Sheikh Tariq bin Rashid, the desert prince of Zayed...and her husband. He'd courted her, captivated her, but he'd never truly trusted her. And treacherous palace lies had sent Jayne running. Now the time for hiding was over—she was back to demand a divorce. And Tariq was willing to comply. If Jayne would pretend to be his happily wedded bride for a few weeks longer. But with passion still burning so intensely between them, would Jayne truly ever be free? As the travelers connection to God unfolds, his all-encompassing love is often reminiscent of the beautiful relationship between the bridegroom and the bride in the Song of Solomon in the Bible. No believer who chooses to follow Christ is exempt from the desert experience, though circumstances differ in each travelers passage. The trial by fire may be personal, financial, or economic distress from the loss of a job, home, or health. However, the purpose of the wilderness and the knowledge imparted to the sojourner remain the same. Originally titled Forty Days in the Desert . . . and Counting, the theme of this devotional is ongoing. The traveler oftentimes is bound by his perception of past failure, present immobility, and future uncertainty. Yet he moves forward, mindful that failure is a necessary evil and a facet of success. The expectation is that with every tumble, the journeyman will jump back onto his horse, re-enter the race, and ride hard until he crosses the finish line. Philippians 3:12-14 aptly urges the seeker to press on toward the high calling of Jesus Christ forgetting what is behind and straining toward what is ahead. The Desert Bride of Al Zayed Tessa Radley Sheikh Tariq bin Rashid, the desert prince of Zayed, had courted Jayne, captivated her, but he'd never truly trusted her.
